Pass were 89, rays 104—Gov. Johnson, with several of the Allegheny delegation, voting in the negative. The Philadelphia delegation solid against it.

On the minority, or compromise leport, the yeas were 143, nays 55. Of the laster, 22 were from Alleghany. I from Beaver, Berks 1, Jeffwrson 2, Montgomery 2, Lawrence 1, Philadelphia 18, Susquenana 2, Westmoreland 4.

The only other business of importance transacted by the regular body, was the passage of the following resolution, with almost entire unanimity:—

Resolved, That a committee of thirteen be appointed to invite the co-operation of all the State Councils in the cantederacy, who may be willing to concur in the principles and platform this day adopted by the State of Pennsylvania, as and for a national creed; and that aconvention be held at Cincinnati, on the 8th day of January next, to concert measures to secure the momination in the convention called by the National Council, of candidates for President and Vice President, who are willing to stand upon the platform this day established, and transact such other matters as may be deemed necessary to secure the success of the American party in the Union. The representation of each State in said convention to be equal to the number of members such State in stitled to in the national Congress.

Before this resolution was acted upon, ten of the Philadelphia and two of the Montgomery county delegation withdrew. The seceders, after the adjournment of the regular Council, proceeded to organize a new State Council.

The two delegates from Montgomery were elected effects, and the Hon. Jacob Broome presented a series of resolutions, which you have seen ere this, when the new State Council adjourned.

After the passage of the above resolution calling a National Convention at Cincinnati, those who had voted for the majority platform, declared their entire acquiescence in, and astisfaction with, the action of the convention in the adoption of the State platform and resolution.
